The trigger of any firearm is critical and must give the shooter as much control as possible. The sleek, skeletonized, and lightweight design of the TANDEMROSS "Victory" trigger provides a flat face that many shooting pros prefer as opposed to the traditional curved triggers commonly seen in the Ruger MKIII 22/45 market. This design allows the shooter to pull straight back instantly providing the operator with the ability to tell if they are pulling too far to the left or the right. The flat faced design also allows the operator to place their finger lower down on the trigger, increasing leverage and enabling them to take full advantage of lower trigger pull weights. The wide face distributes the weight of the trigger pull which also results in a perception of a lower pull weight. The textured version provides a no slip surface regardless of speed, weather or shooting experience. This allows repeatable, near identical trigger pull movements. Coupled with the provided pre-travel and over-travel fine adjustment screws, this TANDEMROSS exclusive trigger will bring any competitor a giant step closer to VICTORY! Flat faced for better control and feel Smooth or Textured option 100% Adjustable for pretravel and overtravel Lightweight skeletonized design
