Stable Cheekweld When Shooting, Maximum Compactness for Carry & Storage

The Law Tactical Gen 3-M Folding Stock Adapter paired with the Magpul® AR-15 MOE® stock is a winning combination that makes your AR more comfortable to shoot and easier to store and carry. Law Tactical's revolutionary Gen 3-M Folding Stock Adapter finally gives the AR-15 platform one feature it always lacked: the ability to fold the stock for the smallest possible profile during storage and carry. The MOE® stock retains the general profile of the standard M4 carbine stock, while providing a more stable cheekweld, more sling attachment options, and a .30" thick rubber recoil pad. Gen 3-M Folding Stock Adapter offers easy, single-button operation Adapter's sturdy steel locking latch keeps the stock solidly in place when extended MOE® stock's provides the ergonomic benefits of Magpul's popular CTR® stock in a mechanically simpler, more economical package Stock fits both 4- and 6-position, mil-spec (1.14" O.D.) carbine buffer tubes Both the adapter and stock have non-reflective matte black finishes The Law Tactical Gen 3-M Folding Stock Adapter even lets you adjust the hinge tension so you can choose how stiff the mechanism is during folding / unfolding. Matched with the Magpul® MOE® stock, it provides a winning combination for making your rifle more portable AND more comfortable to shoot.
