Save Your Thumbs With the Maglula 10/22 Loader

Tired of busting your thumbs while reloading magazines at the range? It's especially easy to do with the high-volume shooting usually associated with .22 LR and the famous Ruger 10/22. However, Maglula has a new option that allows rimfire shooters to save their thumbs and get back to the range faster and easier than ever in the form of its 10/22 Magazine Speedloader and Unloader. Designed to work with all Ruger factory 10/22 magazines, including the extended mags like the BX-15 and BX-25, the Maglula Speedloader and Unloader is designed to prevent damage to the thin-walled cases of the .22 LR, as well as avoid marring the tip of the bullet or the case crimp. The pocket-sized loader is intuitive to use and allows for rapid reloading of mags. For owners of other 10/22-style magazines, like those used in the Smith & Wesson T/CR22 or aftermarket Ruger mags like those from Butler Creek, Black Dog, Eagle, Pro Mag, Shooters Ridge and Tactical Inc, the Maglula Speedloader and Unloader will also allow for easy loading.
