Safety Instruction Guide for Caldwell The Rock Dlx Shooting Rest and Rear Bag Combo

Introduction

Thank you for purchasing the Caldwell The Rock Dlx Shooting Rest and Rear Bag Combo. This product is designed to enhance your shooting experience by providing a stable platform for your rifle. To ensure your safety and the safety of others, please read and follow these safety instructions carefully.

General Safety Guidelines

- Always treat your shooting rest and equipment as if they are loaded.
- Use the shooting rest only for its intended purpose: to support rifles during shooting.
- Ensure that you are in a safe shooting environment, free from obstructions and bystanders.
- Regularly inspect your shooting rest and rear bag for signs of wear or damage before each use.
- Keep the shooting rest and rear bag out of reach of children and pets when not in use.
- Report any unsafe products or accidents to the appropriate authorities.
- Check for recall updates on the EU's Safety Gate platform.

Specific Safety Precautions for Use

- Ensure that the shooting rest is placed on a stable, level surface to prevent tipping.
- Do not exceed the weight limit of the shooting rest as specified in the product specifications.
- Always use the shooting rest in a seated position, ensuring your body is properly aligned with the firearm.
- Avoid placing your hands or any part of your body in front of the firearm when using the shooting rest.
- Never modify the shooting rest or rear bag in any way that could compromise safety.
- Use the rear bag to support the buttstock of the rifle only; do not use it for any other purpose.

Instructions for Installation and Usage

1. Setting Up the Shooting Rest:

- Place the shooting rest on a flat, stable surface.
- Adjust the height of the rest using the provided adjustment mechanism to suit your shooting position.
- Ensure that the rest is secure and does not wobble.

2. Using the Rear Bag:

- Position the rear bag under the buttstock of the rifle.
- Adjust the bag to achieve the desired elevation and stability.
- Ensure the rifle is securely supported before taking any shots.

3. Shooting Procedure:

- Always check your surroundings for safety before firing.
- Maintain a firm grip on the rifle while it is resting on the shooting rest.
- Follow all standard safety protocols for handling firearms.

4. PostUse Care:

- After use, remove the rifle from the shooting rest.
- Store the shooting rest and rear bag in a dry place to prevent deterioration.

- Regularly clean the shooting rest and rear bag according to the manufacturer's recommendations.

Disposal Instructions

- Dispose of the shooting rest and rear bag in accordance with local regulations.
- Do not dispose of the product in regular household waste.
- If the product is damaged or no longer usable, consider recycling components where possible.

Contact Information for Further Support

For any inquiries regarding safety or product support, please refer to the manufacturer's contact details provided with your product packaging.

Thank you for taking the time to read these safety instructions. Your safety is our priority. Enjoy your shooting experience with the Caldwell The Rock Dlx Shooting Rest and Rear Bag Combo!
